

IN THE EXCEPTIONAL CITY...

Poznań is a capital city of the Wielkopolska province – one of the most affluent regions of Poland. It is also a city which hosts the most important fairs in this part of Europe several times a year. Due to its location Poznań is an important transport junction with an international airport, railway connections with the most important cities and a motor-way that is designed to link the western border of Poland with the capital.

The city of business offers also many cultural and sightseeing attractions. In Poznań you can enjoy trendy shopping in various malls located in the city.

IN THE VERY CENTER...

That is where we create this extraordinary place. The IBB Andersia Hotel is located in the heart of the city and surrounded by many modern buildings. The historic Old Town, Poznań International Fair, railway station – everything is reachable within the walking distance from our hotel.
